Meeting Academic and Treatment Needs

The Daytop Preparatory School (DPS), part of the Samaritan Daytop Village network of services, educates and treats adolescents struggling in school because of substance use, behavioral and co-occurring disorders. DPS bridges the academic and treatment settings to:

- Address adolescents' clinical and educational needs,
- Enhance life skills, and
- Promote personal growth.

A unique academic setting, DPS has been utilizing its educational and therapeutic expertise through a social learning model for more than 25 years. The New York State Education Department (NYSED) has classified and approved DPS as an alternative education program and a registered private school.

Quality Education

DPS offers a safe and focused learning environment for teenage students and follows NYSED curriculum requirements. The school emphasizes a holistic approach to increase students' opportunities for success.

Many incoming students have gaps in their educational history — often because of their personal treatment needs, which may not have been previously identified. Through small group and individualized instruction, NYSED-certified teachers address these issues and support students' personal education goals, including subject areas requiring remediation.

Outpatient Treatment

The Rockland and Suffolk schools are located within facilities that house Samaritan Daytop Village Outpatient Treatment Programs, licensed by the New York State Office of Addiction Services and Supports (OASAS). Both programs provide treatment and family counseling for adolescents and adults with mental health and substance use disorders.

With clinical services available on-site, families can request to integrate outpatient treatment into their children's school day.

DPS offers individualized levels of care, including intensive and non-intensive outpatient treatment, mental health counseling, health services, family support, and wellness services. Clinicians work closely with students, families, and school staff to meet treatment goals.

Skills for a Lifetime of Success

DPS is committed to helping every student reach their full academic, behavioral, and emotional potential, including students requiring temporary academic placement.

Within a supportive and structured environment, students develop the skills and confidence needed to thrive in school, at home, and in their communities. Along the way, students build confidence, strengthen social skills, and develop healthy relationships with their peers.

Following the New York State curriculum, DPS offers all required core academic courses, along with STEM and career-focused electives. The school administers Regents Examinations and is authorized to award New York State Regents diplomas.

Enrolling in The Daytop Preparatory School

Families who want to enroll their children at DPS must first schedule an appointment for a clinical assessment with an admissions specialist. DPS Admissions can be contacted at 845-353-2730 for Rockland and 631-351-7112 for Suffolk. All calls are confidential.

School tuition is paid for by the students' home school districts. Most major medical insurance and all Medicaid and managed care plans are accepted for treatment costs.
